

Roundtable on Post-Conflict Reconstruction and Development of Ukraine

Palacký University
Olomouc

Department of Development and Environmental Studies invites you to an event dedicated to the post-conflict reconstruction and development of Ukraine, one of the most significant challenges for the future. Join us as we collaborate with academia, civil society, and business leaders to explore the complex realities on the ground.

Date: Thursday, 17th October 2024, 3 PM to 5 PM CEST

Place: Pevnost poznání (Fort Science), Laudonův sál and online

Keynote speech (online):

Prof. Oxana Shevel, Tufts University and Harvard University

Moderator:

Lenka Dušková, Department of Development and Environmental Studies, Palacký University Olomouc

Panelists:

Jana Bok Toužimská, Deputy Regional Director for the Eastern Partnership and the Balkans, People in Need

Michaela Macharik, Vice-president of the Ukrainian-Czech Chamber of Commerce

Jan Pejřil, External consultant of the Czech Development Agency

Michal Lebduška, Association for International Affairs (AMO)

The roundtable is a follow-up to the micro-credential Lifelong Learning course that took place in February-April 2024 at the Department of Development and Environmental Studies, Palacký University Olomouc in cooperation with the International Organization for Migration. The course was completed by 28 participants – Ukrainian refugees in the Czech Republic.

For more information and a link to the online broadcast, visit

<https://www.development.upol.cz/roundtable-on-post-conflict-reconstruction-and-development-of-ukraine/>